

WHERE WATERS MEET:

Waterfront and waterside as a focus for business, science and economic development

festival programme

16 October 2013

VENUE	TIME	EVENT
SWANSEA MUSEUM	17.00	Doors open all day and chance to visit the Swansea Museum Pontoon and go aboard the Bristol Channel Cutters 'The Olga' and the 'Dolphin', the Lightship 'Helwick' and the steam tug 'Canning'. The RNLI's new Mumbles Lifeboat, 'Roy Barker 4 th ' will also be alongside the Pontoon The Swansea Museum Tramshed will be open from 10.00 until 17.00
	17.30	PUBLIC LECTURE: "CP10 Destiny – AKA Thomas the Tug" by John Powell of the CP10 Destiny Trust
	18.30	PUBLIC LECTURE: "Arctic Voyages with 'Dolphin' – a Bristol Channel Cutter" by Roger Capp her owner and Captain
	19.30	PUBLIC LECTURE: " The History of the Mumbles Lifeboat"
	19.00 – 21.00	CHILDREN'S THEATRE: 'You should ask Wallace' with Theatr na nŌg Wallace – 'Evolution's Forgotten Father' (Gallery 1) and 'Copperopolis' (Gallery 2)
DYLAN THOMAS CENTRE		PUBLIC EXHIBITON ON DYLAN THOMAS Crossing Oceans Exhibition by Jazz Heritage Wales CONFERENCE EXHIBITION OTHER EVENTS – to include Gower College 'The Foundry Project' and the South Wales Chamber of Commerce Dylan's Mobile Book shop
NATIONAL WATERFRONT MUSEUM – OCEAN ROOM	17.30	Museum open all day PUBLIC LECTURE: "Wales and The Sea" by Dr David Jenkins, National Waterfront Museum
	17.00 – 20.00	Penclawdd Cockles – History, of the cockle pickers, language, place names and customs with Menter Abertawe with Archif Menywod Cymru/Women's Archive of Wales
FRESCO COFFEE SHOP Open 17.00 -19.30	18.30	PUBLIC LECTURE: "Where Languages Meet – Linguistic Structures in the Swansea Area" Professor Prys Morgan, Professor of History, Swansea University
	19.30	DARLITH CYHOEDDUS: " Lle mae leithoedd yn Cyfarfod: Strwythurau leithyddol yn ardal Abertawe" gan Yr Athro Prys Morgan

Programme may be subject to last minute changes

Live,
Work, Visit,
Prosper

festival programme

16 October 2013

VENUE	TIME	EVENT
QUEENS HOTEL	19.30	PUBLIC LECTURE - "Dylan's Pubs" by Jeffs Towns, specialist on Dylan Thomas
	20.00	PUBLIC DEBATE OVER A PINT - 'Maritime Heritage and the Welsh Identity' by Syd Morgan and Alan Sandry from the European Institute of Identities, Swansea University
	21.00	Music of the Seas with Baggie Wrinkle and DNA
THE SCHOONER INN	19.30	PUBLIC LECTURE - 'The History of Swansea's Great Regattas' by Ron Austin, Archivist, Bristol Channel Yacht Club
	21.00	PUBLIC DEBATE - 'The Future of Maritime Tourism in Wales' led by Andrew Campbell and the Tourism Team at Swansea Metropolitan University
	21.00	Music with The Disconnected Band
MORGANS HOTEL	18.30	PUBLIC TOUR - 'History of the Hotel' by Christine Owen (Manager)
	19.30	INSTITUTE OF WELSH AFFAIRS SESSION: in the Meeting Room.
		PUBLIC LECTURE - "Swansea's Maritime History and Identity" with Professor Peter Stead, Swansea University
THE PUMPHOUSE PUB AND RESTAURANT	20.00	SHOWCASE OF LOCAL PRODUCE with Swansea Fish, Castell Howell and S A Brain (plus Two can Dine for £10.99)
	21.00	PUBLIC LECTURE - "Marine Gastronomy of Wales" by Simon Wright, Wright Foods
		Music with The Ramblin' Round Band
THE ENVIRONMENT CENTRE	15.00 - 17.00	OPEN DOORS WITH EXHIBITIONS AND CHAT
CAMBRIAN BOATS	12.00-17.30	OPEN SHOWROOM
CAER LAS HOMELESS INIVIATIVE	18.30	OPEN DOORS: A chance to visit the old Customs Offices
	19.30	PUBLIC DEBATE - 'House boats as the solution for homelessness' with Caer Las, SHELTER and CREW
	20.30 - 21.00	Refreshments Music by the Disconnected Band
MISSION GALLERY		OPEN GALLERY Drawing with Wire workshop with Rhian Wyn Stone- All Day
	19.00	Music by DNA
NICK HOLLY STUDIO GALLERY	10.00 - 20.00	OPEN GALLERY with Nick Holly in residence
LIGHTHOUSE THEATRE COMPANY		LITERARY PUB TOURS "Tankers, Tugs and Bananas" - a rolling programme of public tours throughout the day and evening on Dylan's pubs and his poetry - £20 incl. drinks The Queens, The Schooner, No Sign Wine Bar at 12.00; 14.00; 18.00(sold out) and 20.00 Booking Line: 07801 418135
SWANSEA YACHT & SUB-AQUA CLUB	17.30 - 23.00	GREAT FOOD, GOOD BEER AND A WARM WELCOME (guests to sign visitors/members book)

Programme may be subject to last minute changes