

The Maker: Old Stony Hill

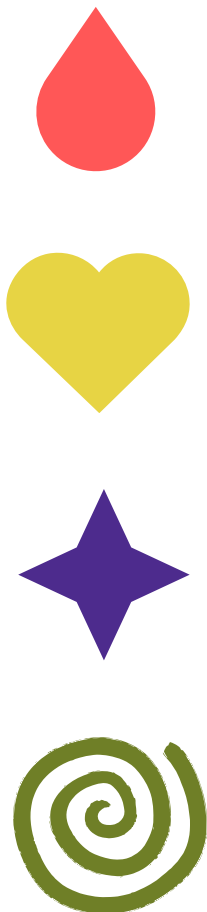

Katherine Silvera-Sunley is the artist behind Old Stony Hill. Katherine wanted to bring her drawings to life by creating pieces that are 3d and able to be decorated with a fun illustrative style.

When Katherine was younger she would often collect small trinkets and ceramic objects. She also loved drawing and painting and used these art mediums to fuel her playful imagination.

Do you collect trinkets and objects or have a favourite toy ? Use this space to describe your trinket.

Activity Time: Pattern Splash

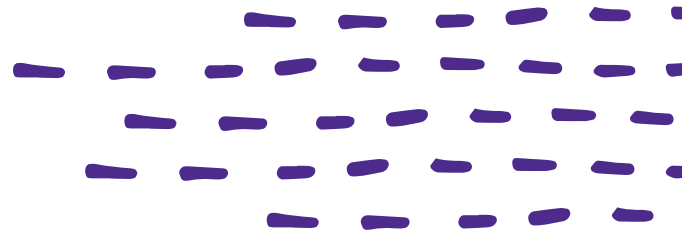

Katherines work is full of pattern and colour. Take a look at her work and try to pick out some of these patterns.

Using bright and colourful pens fill a page with fun patterns and marks. These could be dashes, spirals, hearts. be playful and fun.

Activity Time: Design a cup

Using the patterns you made in the previous activity decorate your own ceramic cup. Use your imagination ! Will you draw a face like Katherine or do you want to draw shapes ? it's up to you to get creative.

“Each piece is a unique expression of my inner self.”- Katherine

Activity Time: Porcelain People

Photograph by Old Stony Hill

Design your own porcelain person, When making, Katherine sees her work as an expression of her inner self.
What do you imagine your inner self looks like ? Use the space below to create an imaginative design showcasing the best of who you are.

